

Prayer points for this fast.

Theme: New wine poured into new wineskins

Confession before prayer: I declare according to Isaiah 58 a scripture that cannot be broken, God in response to my faith released as an act of obedience through this fast has done the following.

1. God has heard the voice of my cry for His help and made His presence visible in my life.
2. His light has been turned on in my head, He shows me where to go and my life has turned around at once.
3. God has secured my passage into the next phase of my life.
4. He has protected me and all that I have from unseen dangers.
5. My life glows in darkness and my talents, gifting, and calling is now at the heart of what's going on in my generation.
6. I am as a well watered garden, my leaves show no sign of the heat around and my spring of fresh relevant ideas never run dry.
7. I am known as one who can fix anything for I take what others called waste and build new and powerful things out of them.

(The Message translation of Isaiah 58)
